By completing this form you agree to have your company information from sections 1 to 3 listed on the 4CNW Creative Directory, which will be published on the website and subsequent mobile applications of the Creative State North West in June 2013. This directory will be promoted as a tool for regional, national and international businesses to find relative creatives to contract. It will also be a useful tool for creatives to network and find each other to develop new partnerships and clusters.

We will treat your information carefully and will not to share your additional information with any third parties outside of The Creative State/4CNW project. It should be noted however that all information submitted is subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Acts and the Freedom of Information Acts.
